

Notice for All Patients

Each health plan varies regarding deductibles, co pays, and coinsurance. Terms are contracted between the insurance company and patient at the time you accept the insurance. It is your responsibility to be aware of your deductibles, co pays and coinsurance, and it will be your obligation to remit all appropriate payments as outlined in your insurance policy. These policy requirements no longer allow us to absorb any co pays, coinsurance or deductibles.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Dr. Avshalomov
